

WEDDINGS OF THE WEEK

Andrew—Guerlet, at Pool

The first wedding to take place at Pool St. Martin's Methodist Church, was largely attended on Thursday, when Mr. James Arthur Andrew, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Andrew, of 13, Church-road, Pool, was married to Miss Simone Zélie Guerlet, eldest daughter of Mme. Marcelle Guerlet, and the late M. Charles Guerlet, of 207, Rue de Tolbiac, Paris.

The bride, given away by Mr. J. A. Johns, was attired in an off-white costume with accessories and wore a spray of pink carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Jean Andrew (sister of the bridegroom) wore a pale blue dress with accessories and a spray of pink carnations.

The best man was Mr. A. Johns (cousin of the bridegroom), and the ushers, Messrs. D. Andrew and J. Rogers (brother and uncle of the bridegroom).

The service, conducted by Rev. J. C. Jacobs, was choral, with Mr. W. F. Sandry at the organ, and the church was decorated with spring flowers.

The reception was held in Pool St. Martin's Methodist Church school-room.

The honeymoon is being spent at Exmouth, the bride travelling in a navy blue costume.

The bridegroom is connected with Pool St. Martin's Methodist Sunday-school.
