

Mrs F Rogers Pool

A leading member of the former St. Martin's Methodist Church, Pool, Mrs. Florence Rogers, of 41, Fore-street, Pool, has died, following a short illness, at Barncoose Hospital.

Aged 84, Mrs. Rogers was the widow of Mr. Joe Rogers, a Pool hairdresser. She held every office open to her at St. Martin's, sang in the choir and was the Sunday school treasurer.

The Rev. J. A. D. Ridholls conducted the funeral at Pool Methodist Church.

Mourners were: Messrs. A. and C. Johns, J. Davey, L. George, B. Bodilly, Mesdames B. Bodilly, H. Mears and J. George (nephews and nieces), Mesdames M. Penberthy and A. Warren (cousins) and Mrs. R. Andrew (sister-in-law).

Died at 84

THE funeral service took place at Pool Methodist Church for Mrs. Florence Rogers, of Fore Street, Pool, who died at Barncoose Hospital after a short illness, aged 84.

The Rev. J. Ridholls officiated, with Mr. R. Stone organist.

the late Mr. and Mrs. Martin Andrew and the widow of Joe Rogers, a hairdresser at Pool.

Mrs. Rogers, a native of Pool, was the daughter of

A member of St. Martin's Chapel, Mrs. Rogers had held every office possible, she was also a choir member, and treasurer of the Sunday School.

She unlocked the door when St. Martins celebrated its centenary.

Represented at the service were Pool Methodist Church, Pool Bright Hour and Trevithick Club.

Family mourners—Messrs. A. Johns; J. Davey, C. Johns, L. George, B. Bodilla, Mesdames B. Bodilla, H. Mears, J. George, nephews and nieces; Mrs. M. Penberthy, A. Warren, cousins; Mrs. R. Andrew, sister-in-law.

Funeral director—F. A. L. Penrose, Carharrack.